LOVE IS OUR HALLMARK

1 KORINTHIANS 13:

"If I speak with the tongues of men and of malakim, but do not have love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophecy, and know all secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all belief, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am none at all. And if I give out all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, I am not profited at all.

Love is patient, is kind, love does not envy, love does not boast, is not puffed up, does not behave indecently, does not seek its own, is not provoked reckons not the evil, does not rejoice over the unrighteousness, but rejoices in the Truth; it covers all, believes all, expects all, endures all.

Love never fails. And if there be prophecies, they shall be inactive; or tongues, they shall cease; or knowledge, it shall be inactive.

For we know in part and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be inactive.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child, I reasoned as a child. But when I became a man, I did away with childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know, as I also have been known.

And now belief, expectation, and love remain – these three. But the greatest of these is love."

If we abide (live, walk) in Yahusha's Word, we are truly His talmidim (students). We will be set free from strongholds (false reasonings). If we accept every thing we hear without testing all things, we can inherit false understandings. "If a ruler listens to lying words, All his servants become wrong." Proverbs 29:12

You can take off your kipa, and put on love. The word "crescent" is not found in the Hebrew text. Therefore, the concept is from another source.

The photo below shows the Namaste hand-folding, ashes, serpent, beads, and crescent moon. The Hindu mystery religion merged with Mithraism and Yahudaism (especially Kabbalism). Hindu holy water, and prayers and offerings for the dead (Purgatory) polluted the teaching authority at Alexandria. Now you know it. People don't know what they don't know, so tell them!

Reverence to tradition grows stronger with each generation. Many traditions come from eastern mysticism expressed in Hinduism.

SIGHTED MOON ORIGINS

INTOLERANCE TO THE POINT OF DEATH

Variations from established beliefs or customs within Christianity, Rabbinic Yahudaism, Islam, and Marxism have been punished with excommunication or death. Islam is divided between Sunni and Shia, and their differences have inflamed a deadly conflict that's lasted over 1300 years. Christianity is split into thousands of sects. The first main schism was in 1054 when the Eastern and Western Catholic bishops excommunicated one another, resulting in a "pope" and a "patriarch." Each consider the other a "heretic." In 1517, a Catholic priest & professor of theology nailed 95 theses to the door of "All Saint's Church" in Wittenburg, Germany. Luther's call for reformation quickly caused the pope's headship to become wounded to death. Nobility protested his office to be the head of the Catholic Church. Since 1541, Jesuits have pursued the healing of this "head-wound" by all means, and their latest efforts are through "ecumenism."

Authorizing violence against those holding close beliefs seems unthinkable. Knowing the division is caused by the dragon, we can unite against our common enemy, and love one another in spite of our differences.

HOW DIVISION STARTED OVER THE CRESCENT MOON

THE KARAITES CONNECTION

Anan Ben Daud is widely believed to be the founder of the Karaite Sect.

In the mid-8th century CE under Islamic rule, he started a movement which broke away from Rabbinical Judaism. It was Anan's hope to become the head Rabbi, but he was passed-over by his younger brother who held more closely to the Torah and "oral law", the traditions of the fathers. Still, Anan's followers installed him in the position of "exilarch". The Caliph Al-Mansur viewed this argument as rebellion, and arrested Anan in 767, and set his execution date. While in prison, Anan met an Islamic teacher who gave him advice that saved his life. Anan was to establish a new religion.

ANAN'S DOCTRINAL ARGUMENTS

Rabbinical "Yahudaism" is not perfect by a long-shot. Anan did not agree with the oral law, but held only to Torah. This was a great foundation, but getting one or two things right doesn't mean he was "infallible." He was also correct about the count to Shabuoth (Pentecost) falling on the 1st day of the week each year. To save his life, Anan had to have radically different ideas to prove to the Caliph that his religion was "different" from Rabbinical Yahudaism. With his life hanging in the balance, a seminal moment came to him that made the Caliph very pleased with him: he announced that he differed from the Rabbinical religion's views concerning the new moon day to set the festivals by. Anan stated that the "sighting" of the new moon was the only way to establish a new moon day, and this was the pivotal issue that changed the mind of the Caliph. Islam's most prominent symbol is the crescent moon. They set their moons according to the sighting of the crescent moon at sunset, but Rabbinical Yahudaism has never done this.

WHICH IS CORRECT, AND WHY?

Neither Anan or the Rabbinical Yahudim understood the festivals symbolize Yahusha's redemption plan. To determine when the new moon begins, we look to when things changed. Yahusha observed the festivals the same as the rest of His nation all around Him, so we can be sure that any departure from His pattern occurred later. That departure came when Anan introduced the sighted-moon rather than the dark moon as the new moon.

Anan and the Karaite sect after him considered Rabbinical Yahudaism to be their doctrinal enemy as much as Luther's reformation considered the pope to be "anti-Christ". We know our enemy is not flesh and blood, and when we hate we do the will of the dragon. The dragon knows false teachings are only a means to an end. The dragon is not too concerned about which side is right, as long as there is division and strife that produces the desired outcome: hate. The one who can love another person rather than hating them is resisting the dragon.

2 THE FULL MOON VERIFIES WE STARTED AT THE REAL NEW MOON

“Blow the ram’s horn at the time of the new moon, At the full moon, on our festival yom.” Ps 81:3 BYNV

Throughout history, the CRESCENT MOON symbol was of utmost importance to every rebellious form of worship.

Beginning in the 1st century CE, Gnostic teachings from the east invaded “the Levant”, or Middle East. Those who are familiar with witchcraft know about the popular image of the “goddess”, with upward-lifting arms depicting the crescent moon. Pre-Islamic Arabs embraced this crescent symbol.

SIGHTED-MOON, OR CALCULATED?

One of the Karaites’ arguments with Rabbinical observance is how the new moon must not be calculated, but rather should be observed. Waiting until the light builds on the face of the moon so a sliver is seen, and then counting 15 days to a festival, a sliver of light is missing from the full moon’s face. The full moon occurs on the 14th day for those beginning with the sighted moon. The Karaites claim they hold only to the Torah (inspired Word), yet there is no trace found in Torah of anyone being told to “see” a crescent phase on the moon, nor anyone ever doing it. Scripture tells us the full moon coincides with the arrival of the festival of Sukkoth, Ps 81:3: “Blow the ram’s horn at the time of the new moon, At the full moon, on our festival yom.”

1Sam 20 verses 5 & 6 inform us there was a “yearly slaughtering” for the clan on the day of the new moon, most likely the 7th moon, and Daud knew when the new moon was before seeing a “sliver” or a sighted-moon: “And Daud said to Yahunathan, ‘See, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I ought to sit with the sovereign to eat. But let me go, and I shall hide in the field until the third yom at evening. If your father misses me at all, then you shall say, ‘Daud earnestly asked my permission to run over to Beyth Lekem, his city, for a yearly slaughtering is made there for all the clan.’”

This evidence proves the sighted-moon came from outside Scripture.

From the Sumerians, the pagan worship of the host of heaven (zodiac, zoo animal forms in constellations) spread its infection to the far east. Hinduism reflects the pattern, taught through “Gurus”, spiritual guides in total opposition to Truth. The dragon deceived all the people of the planet; Persians, Tyrians, Kananites, Egyptians, Greeks, Romans, Aztecs, etc., and continued to spread poisoned teachings all around the Earth.

The host of heaven were worshipped by means of sex. Sexual compatibility is well-preserved even today as it expresses itself in Astrology. The signs of the zodiac at the time of one’s birth are used to predict and evaluate a person’s future according to the position of the sun, moon, and constellations.

The whole Earth is infected with traditions from Babel, becoming drunk from the cup of the Mother of Harlots. The pre-Islamic Arabs worshipped 360 sky-deities, one of which was the “greatest”, called “Allah”. This deity is represented by the crescent moon, and was the most favored by Muhammad’s clan.

SYMBOLS OF ALLAH AND HIS DAUGHTERS

The symbol for Allah and Islam is the crescent moon and star. This has sexual significance to those who have studied the origins of the symbol, inherited from Hinduism. In the Quran, the three daughters of Allah were Al-Uzza, Al-Lat, & Manat. They were mentioned in the “satanic verses”, which later were expunged. Ever since, Islamic teachers have worked to explain how the pre-Islamic Allah is different from the Allah who has no daughters. Whenever a deity is depicted by any object in the skies, it’s a big clue there’s a connection to Babel. Wicca uses the symbol for Allah’s daughters (shown above left). Yahuah, the Maker of heaven and Earth, never told us to represent Him with a crescent moon and star. That much is a striking difference.

As Christians come out of Babel’s rebellious system of adopted fertility feasts and learn Torah observance, many come under the teachings of “Messianic” leaders who coach them in how the moon works. The majority of these teachers inherited their understanding of the sighted-moon from men who taught them to observe the festivals. Just like the Karaites, they believe their understanding of the moon is a “better” method than the Rabbinical pattern. We must concede that not all things we have inherited from Rabbinical Yahudaism are flawed, but only certain things. The week, the Shabbath, the new moon, the Ten Commandments, and the Living Words of Scripture were faithfully preserved for us. We are not responsible for the Talmud, the clothing, the kipa, and any other signs of membership not ordered by Yahuah’s inspired Word. Rabbinical Yahudaism was Paul’s “former way of life” (Gal 1:13), which added traditions of men. In spite of this fact, Stephen told the Sanhedrin (at Acts 7:38) they received the “Living Words” to give to us. The Living Words we must obey.

HINDU TRINITY: the AUM symbol of Brahma, Shiva, & Vishnu use the crescent / star for the male-female forces always united together. This crescent / star symbolizes sexual power, and Hinduism transferred this into the pre-Islamic Arab population as Gnosticism spread westward.

Some sighted-moon teachers have been heralding the omen of the “4 blood moons”.

That’s very interesting, because they cannot tell (calculate) when the next new moon is until they SEE it’s sliver, so how could they possibly know when a lunar eclipse will occur years away?

If calculating the new moon is so wrong to them, why do they publish printed calendars in advance of their sighted-moon slivers every year?

They criticize others for what they also do, but we have to love them. Yahusha told us to not be like the world, seeking positions of authority over others, or to imitate the heathens’ methods in the worship of Him (Dt. 18:9, YirmeYahu 10, Dt. 12). Dt. 12:30-32: “Guard yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire about their mighty ones, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their mighty ones? And let me do so too.’ Do not do so to Yahuah your Alahim, for every abomination which Yahuah hates they have done to their mighty ones, for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their mighty ones. All the words I am commanding you, guard to do it – do not add to it nor take away from it.” BYNV

At 1 Cor. 1, Paul explained how Yahuah chose the weak and despised ones of this world to put to shame the powerful ones in their crimes against Him. We should all live and teach in humility as we learn what is pleasing to Yahuah. Those teaching against the Commandments are powerful, loud, and boastful. They repeat maxims (guiding principles) not found in Scripture to program hearts with false ideas. Paul uses Yahuah’s words to contrast this, “He who boasts, let him boast in Yahuah.” Unity will come at Yahusha return. In our vessels, we possess the Mind of Yahusha. His Mind allows us to share His thoughts, and we are able to discern those among ourselves who also possess the same Spirit of Yahusha within them. They are not loud and filled with strife, but rather gentle and patient. None of us have any right to boast or claim uprightness, so our lips do not condemn one another, we build-up one another.

GOT YOGA?

YOKING WITH FORCES OF EVIL

Whatever understanding we have was given to us, so we must not boast as if we did not receive it (1Cor. 4:7). Our lives are our message, and our words are the words of Yahusha as He pleads through us as ambassadors (2 Cor. 5:20) to call out to the lost:

RESTORATION, NOT REFORMATION: 2Co 5:18-21: “And all matters are from Alahim, Who has restored us to favor with Himself through Yahusha Mashiak, and has given us the service of restoration to favor, that is, that Alahim was in Mashiak restoring the world to favor unto Himself, not reckoning their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of restoration to favor. Therefore we are envoys on behalf of Mashiak, as though Alahim were pleading through us. We beg, on behalf of Mashiak: Be restored to favor with Alahim. For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of Alahim.” We don’t reform Babel, we come out!

For the present, all we can do is have discernment. Being better than other people is not our objective, but rather becoming a vessel through which Yahusha can reach the lost, wherever they may be found. When we compare and rank ourselves relative to others, Yahusha knows our inner thoughts. Either we are the Pharisee standing in the Hekal proud of his standing above others, or we are the broken publican in the back pleading for Yahuah’s loving-kindness for our crimes against Him.

We live our lives being one or the other. Behave as Yahusha would, and He will declare, “Well done, good and faithful servant!”
